High School. What exactly do those two words mean? For some, it's the launch pad for a successful future. Some may see it as a prison with no "Get out of Jail free" card. But in reality, it is LIFE, not just the game, but the real thing and it's just beginning ...

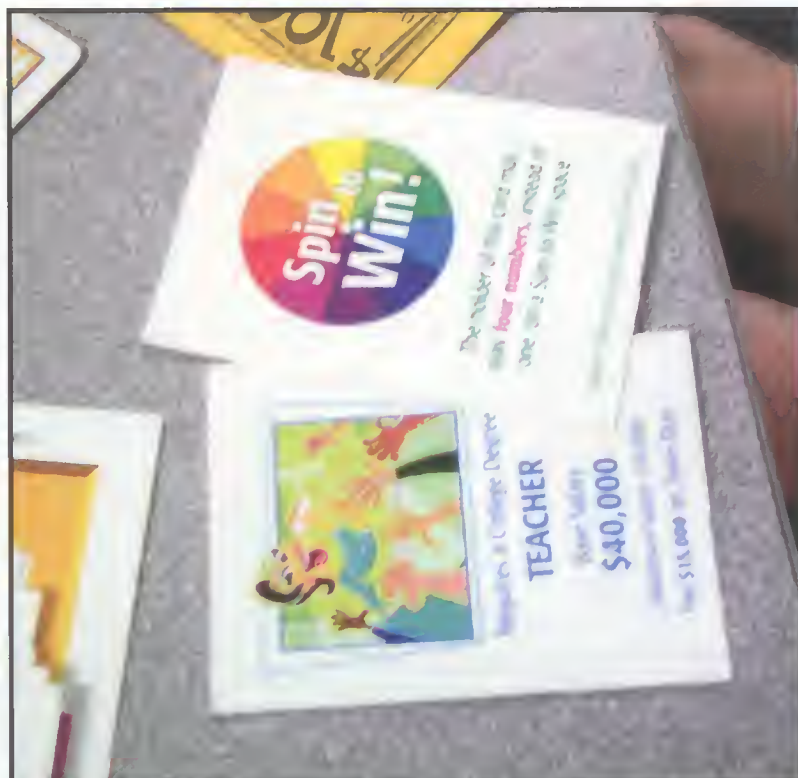

We start out Freshman year and the first thing we see is the cliques, and it seems they're all at WAR. We choose a BATTLESHIP and defend our side no matter what the RISK is. The administrators will eventually catch us fighting, and we feel really SORRY, but we still get our detentions and suspensions, which feels like we were trapped in DUNGEONS AND DRAGONS. We deal with the CARDS we've been dealt, and let the TWISTER of high school take us, and hope we don't end up with too much TROUBLE. We realize high school holds a MONOPOLY on our time, which may just be the source of our AGGRAVATION. The game has only just begun.

By the time we reach our sophomore year, it seems we've lost our MARBLES, but we don't have a CLUE at what's next. With the ANTS IN THE PANTS just settling from freshman year, we are eager to know what's to come. We seek out who our true friends are through TRUTH AND DARE, and who SPILLS THE BEANS of our secret life. It might seem like we are in SOLITAIRE confinement, but there is always someone there for us. We become separated from our dad, and the OLD MAID he married, and lean more toward our friends for support.

As juniors we really start to CONNECT FOUR, and dodge the DARTS that high school brings. We SCRABBLE to get all the credits we need to graduate, and then we realize, the game isn't over yet. OPERATION find a college starts, and we are running around as we sift through what's FACT OR CRAP. BINGO! we have a winner, we decide on the college that is truly our dream. Then, back to the normal routine. We hang out with our friends more, and gain more responsibilities. Toward the end of the year we start sneaking out more and more, always thinking DON'T WAKE DADDY. We are almost in FIRST PLACE, and are ready to be TOP DOG.

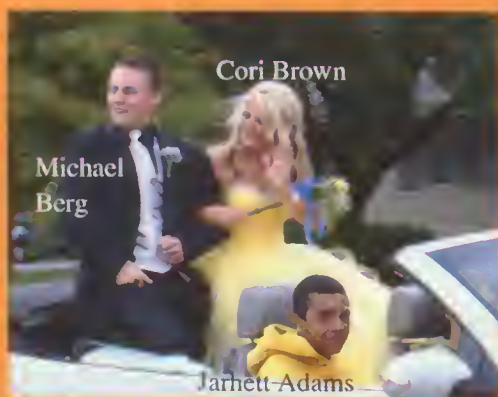

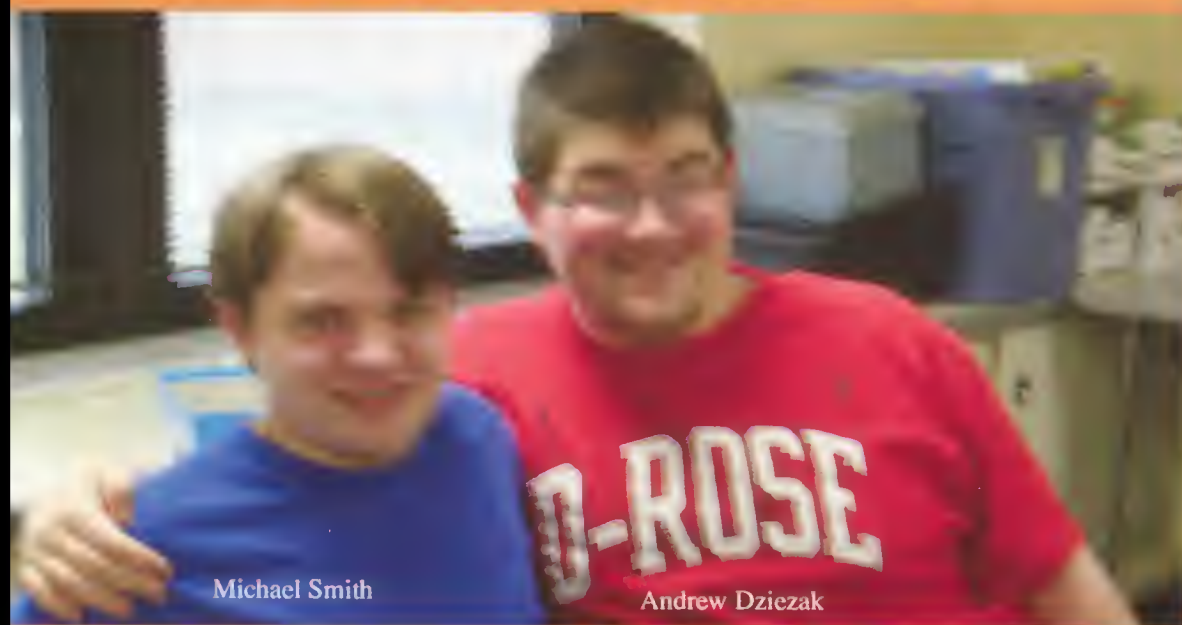

Mr. Blumenthal and Mrs. Dora dressed up as their favorite Disney character (Sheriff Woody from "Toy Story") during one Spirit Week.

GUESS WHO? It's senior year and it seems like the FIRST QUARTER just started. We wish we were kids again and that girls and boys still had COOTIES. We realize that all those "games" we played when we were younger were really preparing us for the future. High school is a CANDY LAND compared to what is to come. We have become more mature and act like we are ready for what is to come, but every time one problem is solved, we get caught in another MOUSE TRAP. We hit one last DOWNFALL, senioritis, but that will soon be over, for although it seems this game is at an end, one last card is drawn, "return to start," and college starts just the same, a naive little freshman trying to go home.

-Mike Blejski

So make sure you play by the rules!
 (because you know Sheriff Woody is always watching you)
Get ready, get set and let's go!

EXPEDITION

During some summers, 16 Highland High students are chosen to take an Expedition across America to learn more about our great land. To be chosen for the trip, each must apply and write an essay explaining why they should be invited. Creativity helps; one student wrote a short story and another wrote a letter to Santa explaining the reasons why they should be selected. Each student also must have three anonymous teacher recommendations and must list their grade point average, class rank and grade level. Many things are taken into consideration before choosing the eight boys and eight girls who will take this journey. The summer of 2011 found our travelers heading east, visiting New York City, the Appalachian Trail, the site of Ground Zero and even the small farm in Shanksville, Pa., where one of the doomed airliners crashed on Sept. 11, 2001.

REMEMBERING 9-11-01

On a gray, drizzly September day, students and faculty gathered to remember that beautiful, sunny day 10 years earlier, September 11, 2001, when our country and our lives changed forever. On that day, four airplanes were hijacked and deliberately flown into the twin towers of the World Trade Center in New York City, the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., and a farm field in Shanksville, Pa.

Musical tributes were offered as were the stories from students who participated in Expedition America, who traveled to these sacred sights during Summer 2011.

As the rain subsided on this 10th anniversary, the ceremony moved outdoors to Highland High's own 9-11 sculpture, designed by 2002 alumnus Keith Anderko. A 21-gun salute was offered and students played taps to recall the memory of the nearly 3,000 lives lost.

Making the day more poignant was the thought we are probably the last generation to have experienced first-hand the tragic events of that day.

Right: When the ceremony moved outdoors, William Eving shared his memories of 9/11

Students return to class at the conclusion of the 10th anniversary convocation marking the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. The ceremony was held near the 9/11 sculpture, created by 2002 Highland High School alumnus Keith Anderko.

Student Council President Michael Anderson places a wreath in front of the 9/11 sculpture in front of the high school.

Members of the American Legion stand at-ease before offering a 21-gun salute near the end of the convocation.

Coming

SECOND ANNUAL TALENT SHOW

The second annual Highland High School Talent Show was sponsored by the Class of 2013. The class president during 2011, Renee Cox, suggested putting on a talent show to raise funds for the 2012 prom and the class's 2013 graduation. But more than just a vehicle to raise money, they have tried to use the show to build school spirit and celebrate our students and staff. All classes were represented, from freshmen to seniors. As the torch is passed to the Class of 2014 for next year's talent show, let us hope this show will continue to grow and give Highland students and possibly even staff a venue to showcase their talents.

With In All Lies Truth bandmates Angel Olvera (from left), Albert Villareal, Aaron Vasquez, and Enrique Arceo were one of 15 acts at the second annual talent show.

2011 Graduate Patrick O'Donnell, senior Jeff Homrich, junior Ian Vassar and freshman Nolan O'Donnell performed as a group.

Kayla Bohney entertained with her piano-playing ability.

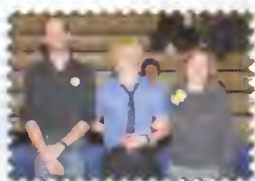

THANK YOU, PARENTS! SENIOR NIGHTS

Once a year at a football game and once a year at a basketball game, the seniors are given special recognition. But it's not just for the senior athletes, cheerleaders, color guard, dancers, and band members; it's to recognize their parents and families. Without the support of caring adults, none of them would be able to accomplish all that they do.

This is by no means all of them, but just a small sampling of the family we share at Highland High School.

Support for Bobby Dempsey

When freshman Bobby Dempsey was diagnosed with leukemia, his classmates decided to show their support in a big way, with help from faculty, staff, and upper classmen. One Friday, students during each of the three lunch hours posed for a photo in the courtyard to show their support. Above and below, others showed their support for Bobby in other ways during the remainder of the year.

CADET TEACHING

The Education Professions class, or Cadet Teaching, is a class for juniors and seniors. This class offers students a chance to work with elementary students in a classroom setting. The cadets get a chance to tutor kids one-on-one, mentor elementary students, present lessons to the entire class, attend field trips, and develop work-readiness skills. They also develop close bonds with their mentor teacher and the students in the class. This year's cadets had an opportunity to present a program about cyberbullying to fourth and fifth graders called Mean Stinks.

CARRIE MARTIN 2012

*From the day you were born,
The first moment we looked into your eyes.
We never thought we could love someone so much*

*You were our little princess
Always so beautiful and happy
Always wanting to make others happy
When holidays and birthdays came along -- the ever beautiful smile with
"It's what I always wanted"-- when opening up presents, always put such joy in our hearts.*

*The years have flown by, way too fast,
It was just yesterday we watched you go into your kindergarten class and wave goodbye
Now it's time to graduate high school and you will be waving goodbye once more.
We hope we have prepared you for the road
that lies ahead.*

*- Cherish your childhood memories -
Take your love for music with you, and apply
all the many years of being in Choir into your future.
Do what makes you happiest! ...*

You have been such a wonderful daughter and sister and we all love you very much.

Now go out into that big world and show us what you're made of, and may the road rise up to meet you.

Congratulations Baby Girl

Lots of love

Mom, Dad, Becky and Sarah.

A dream is a wish your heart
makes when you're fast asleep. In dreams you will lose your heartaches.
Whatever you wish for you keep. No matter how your heart is grieving, if you keep on believing the dreams that you wish will come true.

WORLD YEARBOOK

2011 thru 2012...

#TOPHASHTAGS #EGYPT / #THREWORDSTOLIVEBY / #SUPERBOWL / #JAPAN / #IDONTUNDERSTANDWHY

WAVES OF CHANGE Former Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak, who had been in power since 1981, was ousted in 2011.

He was later put on trial for allegedly ordering the killing of protesters. EGYPTIAN PROTESTERS Waving their national flag and shouting slogans, thousands crowded Cairo's Tahrir Square to demand political change as anger grows with the military rulers over the slow pace of reform. TOGETHER IN PROTEST The flags of Syria, Tunisia, Yemen, Egypt and Libya were painted on participants' palms during a demonstration in Yemen.

ARAB SPRING

PROTESTS ACROSS THE MIDDLE EAST brought changes to Arab nations large and small. Uprisings began in Tunisia, where, as 2010 ended, a young vendor protesting the confiscation of his wares set himself on fire. Discontent spread to Egypt and Yemen as 2011 began, and in the months that followed those governments and leaders from Bahrain, Libya and Syria were under siege. By year's end, the presidents of Tunisia, Egypt and Yemen had stepped down and Libya's Moammar Gadhafi and his son Mutassim had been assassinated. Tunisians went to the polls in October 2011 and the Egyptian election took place just a month later. The protests continued despite high costs: thousands of lives (5,000 in Syria alone) and billions of dollars were lost.

10 YEARS LATER Dedication ceremonies for the families of victims marked the anniversary of the attacks on the World Trade Center, while the 9/11 Memorial on the 16-acre site of the former WTC complex opened to the public the following day. The memorial's reflecting pools, set within the footprints of the original twin towers, are surrounded by names of the nearly 3,000 victims.

MEDAL OF HONOR Marine Corporal Dakota Meyer was awarded the Medal of Honor after saving 36 lives in Afghanistan.

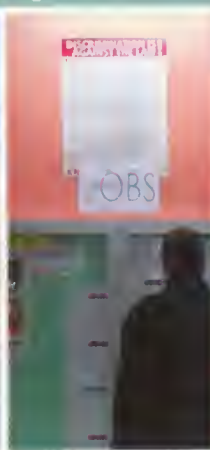

MORTGAGE RATES AND FORECLOSURES Housing prices continued to fall as more than a quarter of American homeowners owed more on their mortgages than their homes were worth. Despite interest rates as low as 4%, home ownership continued to decline.

OCCUPY WALL STREET After gaining the world's attention with an online presence in addition to gathering in NYC's financial district, protesters disturbed by growing income inequality and wealth distribution in the United States between the wealthiest 1% and the rest of the population replicated occupations from coast to coast.

POTENTIAL GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN The Budget Control Act of 2011 was passed on August 2, bringing a conclusion to the debt-ceiling crisis, which had threatened to lead the United States into sovereign default.

STONE OF HOPE The August, 2011 dedication of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial in Washington, DC honors Dr. King's contributions and vision for all to enjoy a life of freedom, opportunity and justice.

UNEMPLOYMENT While January 2012 data showed a national unemployment rate of just 8.3% — the lowest in more than three years, economists warned that the encouraging report might be the result of factors like discouraged job seekers giving up the hunt for work as much as economic growth.

OSLO ATTACKS People laid flowers in memory of the victims of a pair of attacks in Norway that claimed 76 lives on July 22. A shooting spree at a youth summer camp occurred just two hours after a car bomb explosion near the Prime Minister's office.

LOCKOUT DRAMA

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PITTED PLAYERS AGAINST OWNERS in both the NBA and NFL. Sports fans feared the worst but both leagues were able to agree in time to save most of their regular seasons. In the NBA, the focus was primarily on cutting player salaries to help struggling teams. Both sides remained far apart on just about every major issue. They settled in late November, agreeing to a 66-game schedule, with the first games set for Christmas Day, cutting two weeks off the regular season. The NFL lockout lasted from March 11 to July 25. Once an agreement was reached, the players won additional benefits; the continuation of a 16-game regular season schedule, improvements in player safety and increased injury protection. Almost as soon as an agreement was reached, trades, deals, cuts and contracts were made.
